

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a shame.

This is a blatant example of large companies controlling the airwaves and not serving the public's best interest. No company should have this right anymore than Janet Jackson has the right to show her breast during the Superbowl. Thank you.